

APRIL HOROSCOPE

FIRE SIGNS

Aries

Time to lead! Your pursuit of success is an inspiration to others so remember, success often depends on admitting when you are wrong, especially to yourself. Keep fighting for what you believe in, though. By the end of the month the Taurean and Cancer energies conspire to support your success in a long term, meaningful way.

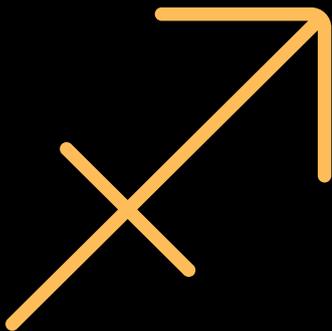

---

Leo

Philosophical refinement brings success in career and public perception. This month, it is beneficial to ask yourself to check in on your personal creed and morals. Are they still in alignment with the person you are becoming? Let go of any limiting beliefs and transmute this doubt into a confidence others will recognize and try to emulate.

Sagittarius

The beginning of April is all about wonder and fun for you, Sag. Like the budding Spring blossoms, you are here to be seen. Enjoy it, as the end of the month energy becomes more serious and goal focused. There is important planning to be done. Evaluate any decisions you need to make to be extra sure they align with your longterm goals and are not just a quick fix.

EARTH SIGNS

Taurus

Reflect, then flex. Time to clean out the gutters of your psyche with shadow work. Take heart! This work will set you up for an amazing solar return. Expect new opportunities in love, friendship, and work. Be open to receiving the many birthday gifts now that you have freed up all the room for in your psyche for them.

Virgo

Bring on the spellwork and the tarot cards because you are on a mission to get to the bottom of it all and your magickal, intuitive energy is through the roof right now. Ask spirit to help you plan and lay foundations. By month end you should see some real possibilities for your investments. If you feel doubts, work through them with inner dialogue. Things are looking up so lean in!

---

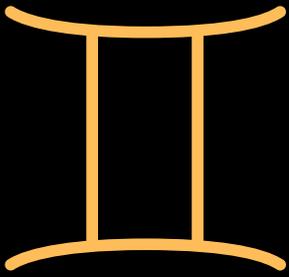

Capricorn

You may be feeling more than a little burnt by Aries season energies and that's ok. This month is calling you to lean into your nest, your home, your family. Forget the impulsive, inconsiderate jerks you have been encountering and spend time with your special people. In fact, maybe plan a Spring outing of fun and frivolity for month end. Your soul will recharge beautifully.

AIR SIGNS

Gemini

It is time to share your vision board with others. Find kindred spirits and like-minded individuals and see if they want to team up on a passion project. Listen to their ideas and perspectives. This is all fuel for month end when you will transmute this group input into a deeper understanding of who you want to be for the remainder of the year.

Libra

Ask yourself, who is in your life and why. Who is actually worth your energy? It is great to have many acquaintances, but it becomes problematic when these people start seeing your friendly nature as way to use you. By month end you will have a healthier outlook on relationships and inauthentic people will reveal themselves. Hold tight, this is all in your best interest.

Aquarius

This is the perfect time to work on your journaling, manuscript, or poetry. You can power through writer's block by force of imagination. Get it all out and be proud of your talents. You can spend the rest of your month reflecting on your work, revising it, and producing something whole, something you will gift to the world.

WATER SIGNS

Cancer

Time to hit the gas at work and school. This is a great time to take on a big project or go for a promotion. Big rewards show up for big risks, although be sure to temper your actions by checking in with your peers and colleagues. The way to ensure your success will be through relationships as well as your own willpower.

Scorpio

Make that doctors appointment you have been putting off or start that new health routine you have been considering. The universe supports you taking care of yourself at this time. Consider trying a group activity to get some exercise. You might be surprised at the new friends or love interests you meet on the kickball diamond or on the hiking trail.

Pisces

Time to harvest, Pisces! You have done the shadow work, you have reinvented yourself, and you are ready to cash in. Look for opportunities to grow your cash flow and sex life. Be sure to communicate your plans to others clearly and with progress markers. You have nothing to fear and all to gain from being direct and proud of your accomplishments,
